8:30am Golf at Bonville Club with shared motorised carts

The only disturbance as you meander along in the whisper-quiet electric carts might be wildlife scuttling into the bushes or birds singing in the treetops. Look closely into the treetops and you might spot a family of koalas feasting on the leaves of the Blackbutt, Ironbark and Tallwood trees. Bonville is a natural sanctuary for a wide range of native Australian species including the large black cockatoos, koalas, well-fed kookaburras, water dragons and magnificent goannas.
