The Grange Golf Club - 18 Holes with Shared Motorised Carts

Ranked #43 in Australia

The Grange Golf Club is the birthplace of Greg Norman's professional career. The West Course begins with a relatively easy Par 5 and concludes with a closing stretch of four testing Par 4's. The course was extensively redesigned by Michael Clayton in 2008, his changes primarily to greens and bunkers though the odd shifted tee and target has helped improve the experience. The absence of housing lining the course and holes defined by rows of tall Pines ensures a spacious, distinctive parkland feel.

After Golf: Group Transfer to Hotel

*The beachfront Oaks Plaza Pier offers stunning views in Adelaide's favourite seaside suburb. Mount Compass Golf Course offers players 18 challenging links style holes which includes four par 3 holes, ten par 4 holes and four par 5 holes over a gently undulating landscape. It is peppered with gorse, 89 tight bunkers and a few integrated water features. The course takes advantage of the sandy soils that dominate the area, making effective use of the original topography of the site. Mount Compass Golf Course is brilliantly maintained and manicured.

Day 3

Wednesday 4 May 2022

Shopping in Hahndorf and Wine Tasting in the Adelaide Hills

Hahndorf is classified as Australia's oldest surviving German settlement. It is a small quaint town, known for its German-style architecture and artisanal food. The tree lined main street is filled with fabulous little shops, bakeries and cafes. We will stop here for a visit so that you have time to do some shopping and have something to eat before we continue on to our wine tasting.

The Adelaide Hills is one of Australia's best cool-climate wine regions. With more than 60 wineries to choose from, there is literally a cellar door around every corner. This region was hit hard by the Bushfires in early 2020 with over 25,000 hectares of land burnt, including 1,100 hectares of grapevines. Many of these vineyards are small, family run properties.

Glenelg Golf Club - 18 Holes with Shared Motorised Carts

Ranked #37 in Australia

This highly ranked South Australian course offers a true world class challenge. With towering pine trees, revetted bunkers, undulating land and wetland areas that are both scenic and hold a purpose, Glenelg is an established golf club with a modern feel. The playing surfaces are supreme and the club has a plentiful water supply thanks to a dozen wetlands that disperse water between ponds, recycling it for irrigation and to replenish the underground aquifer. The 1.4-hectare wetlands also contain more than 50,000 native plants.

Day 5

Friday 6 May 2022

Royal Adelaide Golf Club - 18 Holes with Shared Motorised Carts

Ranked #11 in Australia

The Royal Adelaide Golf Club was formed in 1892 and has been the venue for many international and interstate matches and championships. The course has a distinctive open links style character. Taken as a whole, the course, with its wide open spaces, poses more problems than appear at first sight, except under the most benign conditions. You'll be happy to play to your handicap here.
