The breathtaking setting of Bonville has seen it described as “the most beautiful golf course in Australia, if not the world”. Currently ranked #11 in Australia’s top courses by The Golf Course Guide, the resort is rated as one of the best in Australia. The Par 72 championship course rises and dips through the serene and beautiful layout with each fairway isolated and private from the next. Its great appeal lies in the fact that it will stimulate and challenge golfers of every standard.

One of the memorable aspects of a round at Bonville is the strategic quality of its par-5s. Each requires attention to detail and, putting your shots in the right position from the tee and in lay-up areas will reap benefits. There is no better example of risk-and-reward par-5 strategy design than that found on Bonville's closing hole. The 460-metre journey is over the crest of a hill between deep rows of towering Flooded Gums that line the way to the green, which sits just beyond a pond and stream. Standing on the crest, or clubhouse side of the hill, looking down toward the angled green beyond a snaking water hazard you are confronted by a few questions. For many players, there is never any question whether to go for the green in two shots or not. In such a wonderful theatre that the 18th provides it is hard not to add to the drama by throwing off the shackles and risking a dropped shot or two by playing aggressively ... downhill lie or not.

Day 5

Friday 30 June 2023

Breakfast in the Bonville Brasserie

Bonville Golf Club - 18 Holes with shared motorised cart

The only disturbance as you meander along in the whisper-quiet electric carts might be wildlife scuttling into the bushes or birds singing in the treetops. Look closely into the treetops and you might spot a family of koalas feasting on the leaves of the Blackbutt, Ironbark and Tallowood trees. Bonville is a natural sanctuary for a wide range of native Australian species including the large black cockatoos, koalas, well-fed kookaburras, water dragons and magnificent goannas.

After Golf Join us for a quick farewell before you make your way to your onward destination.

Tour Ends
