Breakfast

Legend Golf & Safari Resort - Extreme 19th & 18 Signatures Course - 18 Holes with Shared Motorised Carts

The World's Longest, Highest & Most Dramatic Par 3

Prepare for one of the most extraordinary experiences in golf. The Extreme 19th is far more than just another hole on the scorecard, it is a true bucket-list adventure and one of the most iconic golfing experiences on the planet. Combining a breathtaking helicopter flight, spectacular African scenery and a challenge unlike any other, the Extreme 19th is a moment you'll remember long after the final putt has dropped.

The Hole

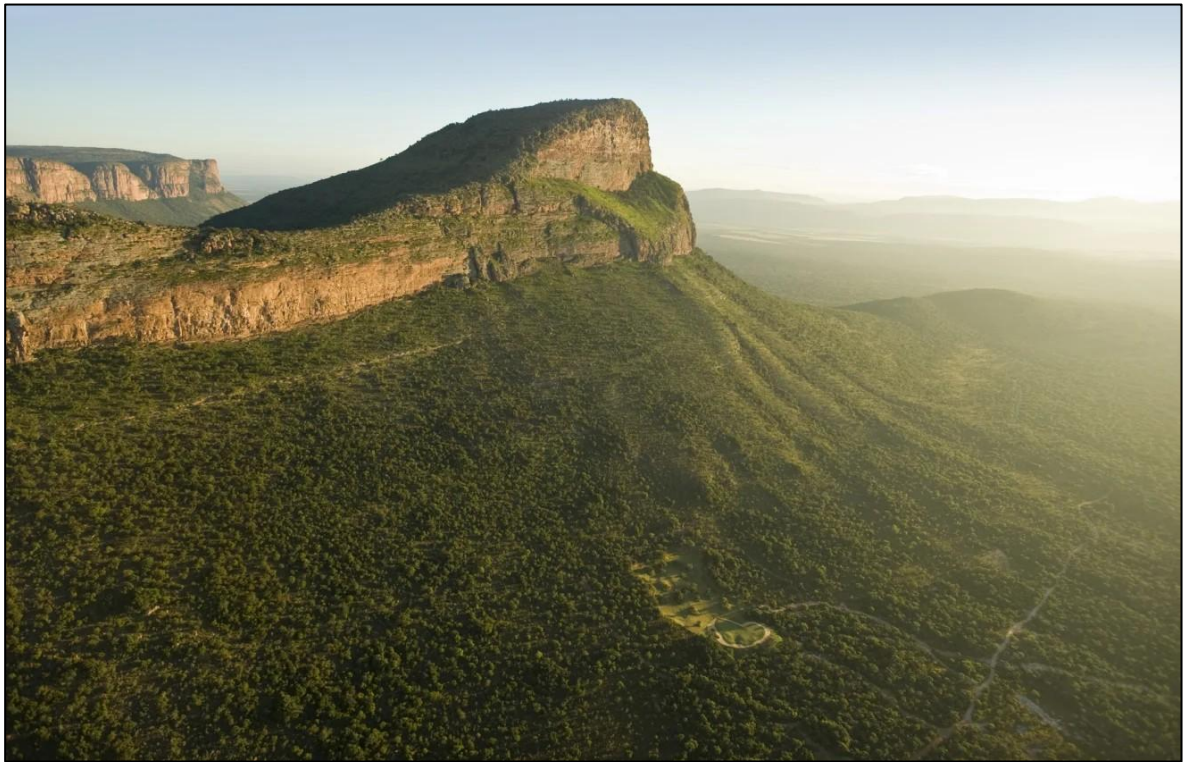

The Extreme 19th is the world's longest and highest Par 3. Played from the summit of Hanglip Mountain, the tee box sits an incredible 430 metres above the green below, offering panoramic views across the vast African bushveld. The target is a unique green shaped like the continent of Africa, located approximately 400 metres beneath the tee. To reach the green requires a remarkable shot of around 260 metres, while your golf ball can remain airborne for up to 40 seconds as it soars through the African sky.

The Experience

The adventure begins with a thrilling helicopter flight to the mountaintop tee box. As you fly above the reserve, you'll enjoy spectacular aerial views of the surrounding wilderness, grasslands and rugged landscape before landing on one of the most dramatic teeing grounds in the world.

Standing on the edge of the mountain with endless views stretching to the horizon is an experience in itself. Then comes the moment you've been waiting for – launching your tee shot from the cliff-top towards the famous Africa-shaped green far below. Equal parts adrenaline, excitement and awe, it is an unforgettable golfing moment.

A World-Famous Golfing Challenge

Since opening in 2009, the Extreme 19th has attracted golfers, celebrities and sporting personalities from around the world. Academy Award-winning actor Morgan Freeman famously recorded a par on the hole, while former Barbados cricket star Franklyn Stephenson achieved the first recorded birdie after holing a seven-metre putt.

Today, golfers travel from across the globe to take on this legendary challenge and experience one of the most photographed and talked-about holes in world golf.

A Story You'll Tell Forever

No golfer will ever forget their experience of the Extreme 19th. Whether it's the helicopter flight, the breathtaking views from Hanglip Mountain, or watching your ball disappear into the vast African landscape before finally landing below, this is one of those rare golfing moments that becomes a story you'll tell for years to come and from 2027, only 2,500 golfers annually will be able to play the iconic Extreme 19th, adding a new level of exclusivity to one of the game's most unforgettable experiences.

Evening Dinner and Drinks

After a thrilling day of extreme golf, sit down, relax and unwind with a delicious meal as you reminisce on your days adventure.

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
